West Bridgewater Middle/Senior High School

WEST BRIDGEWATER PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Class of 2009 dedicates this year's yearbook to Mr. Michael Rosow

This year, the class of 2009 chose to dedicate the yearbook to a teacher who has expanded our minds and helped navigate us through the chapters of our time here at West Bridgewater Middle/Senior High School.

This teacher showed us how to express ourselves through writing by teaching us to put a little of ourselves into each topic we wrote about. We learned how to use our own language through endless vocabulary and grammar lessons and some of us were even lucky enough to join the polar bear club.

He has taught us to find the underlying meaning, themes, and rhetoric of not only books and essays, but also in life. With his humorous stories, great debate skills and love of the dramatics, music, and lacrosse, he made English fun. We will always carry his teachings with us. Mr. Michael Rosow, we dedicate our yearbook to you.

The mission of West Bridgewater Middle-Senior High School is to provide a safe, supportive learning environment in which each student will acquire the knowledge, skills and values necessary to become a life-long learner and responsible citizen in our diverse and changing society.

Donations to Our Teachers

With Love from the Class of 2009

I Leave Mrs. Schmeer a lifetime supply of peanut butter crackers.

I leave Mr. D another class full of scrubs.

I leave Mr. Pike my talents that I never wasted by joining track.

I leave Mr. D a person to visit him everyday.

I leave Mr. Finley a cooler PB crew and Graz the chance to find a more perfect duo than me and Webby.

I leave Miss Lafferty one unmemorized script.

I leave Mr. Despier one episode of Law and Order.

I leave Mr. Collins a chorus that won't wear jeans at the formal events and a quote book full of his silly sayings, and Mr. McMurray a few replacement thermometers.

I leave Graz and Kenrick an SAT class where I can decide what I want to be when I'm older.

I leave Mr. Winchell another embarrassing picture to show to all of his students, Graz a perfect MCAS score that I was unable to achieve, and Mrs. Wilder a box of SHARPIES.

I leave Mrs. Cronin a box of Dots.

I leave Wilder four years worth of Ugly Bag of the Year Awards.

I leave Mr. Pike a decent Track team after the incredible seniors leave.

I leave to Mr. Pike all ten seasons of Stargate SG-1.

I leave Mr. Collins two years worth of powerblocks all to himself.

I leave Miss Lafferty an amazing drama club, Mrs. Previte an intern that can photocopy more than 100 packets a day and Mrs. DeLorenzo another fun yearbook staff.

I leave Mr. Winchell some rechargeable calc batteries... sorry, I needed some.

I leave Mr. McMurray a brand new thermometer.

I leave Mr. D a tractor.

I leave Mr. Nenos pictures of Europe and Mr. Pike a crayon drawn cartoon picture.

I leave Mr. Pike a finished crossword puzzle, an empty trashcan, and a better intern.

I leave Mr. Collins my amazing desktop publishing skills, and the trumpet section.

I leave Mr. Despier an "impeccable" three point stance.

I leave Mr. D. my student planner to get organized next year with SADD.

I leave Mr. Rosow "The Greatest Athlete Ever" movie to share with his communication classes.

I leave Mr. Nenos one more year with the debate club.

I leave Mr. Finley a new girl who he will always catch doing the weirdest things at the weirdest times, and will have no problem dancing at any given moment.

I leave Mrs. Fontecchio two students like Haley and me.

I leave Mrs. Mischley a student who actually reads Great Expectations over the summer.

I leave Mr. Nenos my meticulous APUSH notes, and hope that other history nerds will use them to their benefit!

I leave Mr. D a quieter student.

I leave Mrs. Daley someone to always sneak food into her STATS class.

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."

Wow! I cant believe its over. It went by so fast. Ive made many friends and learned many lessons in this school. To my girls: VA, LB, JJ, KC, KC, KG, EZ, RM, JC I love you guys and I am grateful that you're in my life. To my parents, thank you for guiding me and teaching me all the things I need to know in order to be a successful, kind person. To my soccer girls, thanks for so many laughs and memories. To my grandfather, I love you and thank you for all the amazing things you do for me. Nicole, my sister, my best friend, thank you for always being my shoulder to cry on. I will miss you all class of 09, may you find happiness and fulfill all of your dreams

This is crazy, I'm a senior! I really dont know what to say. Well, all I know is that I am going to miss all of you. We had our ups and downs, I have known most of you since fourth grade. Now that I think about it, that was a long time ago but it doesn't really feel that long. I really would like to say thank you to my parents, coaches, and teachers for being there for me. I especially would like to say thank you to my best friends for making my school years amazing, you know who you are, and to the class of 09, WE MADE IT!

Too many mems here at WB so I'll just get to it. Cat we met in 7th I love you to death. 6 Flags trip was the best especially when we got to cut lines, our camping trip was much fun, day trip to Hampton Beach great. How could I forget crying bullfrog!! Kate I love every weekend bowling with the same people it never got boring. EWEN! NJ & seeing All American Rejects in concert-rock on! Nicole 3 words; Beavis and Butthead. Our trip to the zoo when it stormed was the funniest thing ever and the most inconvenient & the limo ride in the middle of a blizzard to your party was awesome. Erin lots of fun laughing at D thanks for helping me out with this. Im going to miss it here. It feels like last week was the first day of hs and now a blink of an eye later its over. So just have fun!

High school was crazy I didnt know many people at first but that changed for me. As my high school years went on, I realized that there was only one chance to reach your goals & have fun. senior year was a blast, all the memories to hold on to as we leave high school. all the friends we made, that we probably wont see again. Julie Kane & Jordan Jarred [[LGC]] I love you girls, we've been through it all together. late summer nights, midnight madness, dances, PROM! Being there for each other when Jose left us. Rip baby* we miss you, its crazy just to think that its all coming to an end, that its finally over for us! Austin Pike, your amazing and I've never met anyone like you, thanks for everything you've done for me. And my parents, I wouldn't of made it this far if it wasnt for them pushing me everyday and being by my side through it all. High school goes by fast so live it slow! So this is the last of my words, later wh the class of 2009 is out of here!

Senior year? What? I let time get away from me! Well, no matter how much we complain about our three hallways and decrepit auditorium, I know that I will miss West Bridgewater High School for the sake of the memories we've made here. I'd like to thank my friends who have made Wildcat life worth the face paint and Mardi Gras beads, the teachers who have supported and laughed with (at) me, and the family who have encouraged me to give WB all I could. I can't say that I'd have made it through without you and couldn't have asked for more; I'm so thankful for each of you. Drama Club, keep it real and I'll come see you next spring. DARASUNASAME, LB,CT,RB,ET (etc.), Mom, Dad, Ollie, Sophie, Max, I love you and this isn't goodbye! Good luck wherever you go, Class of 2009!

To all seniors,

I am a man of few words, but we made it through the first half of our lives now we must go on to either college or straight into the work force. In any case we are the new generation of doctors, models, plumbers, pro-football players and what ever we will become, but we will always remember our time at West Bridgewater High School.And to the rest of the school, my advice is just pay attention in school, don't mouth off to teachers, and try to have fun in school even though it seems to be dull but what ever you learn in WBHS it will follow you.

Four years gone in a flash, memories that will last a lifetime. My first summer job at Mr. Nenopolous, Mr. Connors class in the 10th grade, debate changing me for a lifetime year, and getting my bell rung my senior year. Getting noticed to play the sport no one else would. When I look back down the long road I have traveled, I don't think I could have made it without the people who pushed me along, my friends Rob and Paul, and Mr. Nenopolous who helped make me like school again. Those memories will last forever.

Ok, so I have no idea where to start thanking the people who helped me get through high school or how I will never forget them. I will also never forget the years that I played football. So Ill just start with my favorite teachers. Mrs. Mello. Mrs. Gaucher. Mrs. Meneses, and Mrs. Holden, who stuck by me throughout high school, whether or not I was having a great time or going through a rough patch. And of course football, my most memorable moment in my life probably was when I was a sophomore and we won the D4 Super Bowl. I wish everyone in my class to have great years ahead of them. I especially want to thank my family. There was no way I could have done it with out you. And lastly good-bye to my great friends, its been real with you guys. Eryk, Krissey, Patrick, Roddy, Web, Coortsy, and all of the other guys that are on the football team.

"Don't believe in yourself, believe in the me that believes in you."

So, here we are. Only twelve years ago I moved here from New Jersey with my mom. Only four years since I came to this school. It all happened so fast that sometimes I forgot when I was in time. This school has become a foundation of my life for nine months out of the year, a routine that will be hard to break for me. The daily joys and sorrows of the school day will be gone forever; familiar faces will begin to vanish from sight and mind. It looks bleak as I leave behind many great memories from these past four years. However, for every end there is a beginning, a light for the dark. I would like, for nothing more in my biography, to point out that simple fact, the fact that memories are forever. Thank you all.

Senior year, its all gone by far too quickly. Ill never forget the people and friends that have helped me through this. My parents for always telling me to aim higher and pushing me to do better and for just loving me. For my friends for being with me through everything and just goofing off and making growing up seem so much easier. Bike rides, going over each others houses just to read together, writing stories, and everything else weve done. I love you all. Finally for my teachers. without you learning would be quite impossible. Ill remember all my high school years, especially the people that made them what they were.

CADOO! One of the best times of my life, spontaneous plans have become a specialty it seems. Camp outs night before, random trips to Maine and all this in under a month. We've somehow managed to make plans from nothing, no money whatsoever, into the best days ever. Playgrounds aren't just for little kids, I don't care what you say. Friction Buddy! Paddle! Ranger! Campout! Cuddle Time! Back of the Knees! Too many good times to include them all. Ive gotten so close to so many people and its amazing. I have the best friends a guy could ask for. Matt, Sue-Ellen, Fuzzy, Taylor, Jon, Meg, Kayla, you guys are really amazing and Ive had so many memories that Ill never forget because of you. Youve helped me really come out of my shell and I can never thank you all enough.

I hate to believe high school will be the best time of my life, but hey, it's a lot of fun. It gives you just a much to look forward to as it does to look back on. I've lived in West Bridgewater my whole life and I will say I'm looking forward to leaving it, but I'm also looking forward to missing it. It may sound cliché but I've met a lot of great people and had a lot of good times here. I wouldn't trade the time I've spent at school or with my family for anything else. It seems like just yesterday I was getting on the bus to go to the Spring Street School for preschool with Miss Beth and Lazy Daisy. For my friends, CP, JC, EC, CC, MS, ED, BC, CB, GC, KA, and BP I love you guys so much and senior year would have been nothing without you. And of course, the same goes to everyone in the Drama Club. I love you guys! We've all had so much fun in WBHS. From Sugar and Silly String fights in Brodis class to Halloween costume talks with Hyde. I wouldn't even be where I am today without my family. I love you all so, so much! Especially my two favorite nephews, Tony and Joshy. To the Senior Class of 09, you guys are all amazing and I wish you all well with your life's journey!

It's been a long four years here at WBHS but we finally made it. A lot of good times over the years, Monday night Emmas, late night trips to WalMart, Occasional visits to Boston with Den, Amy, Josh, Matty and Chuck. Hanging with Abe whenever possible. Visiting Matty and his family at his Cape house with Norris and Greg is always fun. I'll never forget about all the good times during track. Finally beating Marthas Vineyard and becoming TriChamps with the great coaching from Mr. Pike and Mr. Teves and of course Abe's motivational speeches. A big thanks to my mom for always being there for me. And of course the best times of all with Sam, Plymouth and the Cape Cod Canal. Always thinking of you. I love you so much.

And so marks one of the greatest experiences I will ever have; high school. I owe it all to my teachers and all the unforgettable times with friends and family in which I hold close to my heart. As expected, I have a few individuals that need to be recognized who have guided me through my academic years. My parents: words cannot express the amount of love and support you have given me over the years. My closest friends (you know who you are): whether it be scouting out deals at The S, writing our own versions of Bonnie and Clyde, buying out South Station, or bike rides and Josh Groban soundtracks, you have taught me to love and how to be free spirited. So many good memories in WB. I want to thank Mom, Dad, Steven, Marissa and the rest of my family for all the help and support. Thanks to all my teachers who helped me to reach my goals. My boys James, Jared, Dan, Evan, and Jon, good times. Summer 08 was crazy! Chillin at Jareds, fires at James house, fun at the beach, surviving the roll-over on Route 24. Taking the RV to the prom. Drama Club, best time I ever had in high school. Grease--one of the best shows I ever done. To everyone in Drama, put on a great show next year. Even though high school is over, we will never forget all the good times. Good Luck to everyone in the Class of 2009.

When I first came to West Bridgewater, I thought what am I supposed to do in this place? now I think what would I do without this place. Ive had some great times in these halls and Im definitely going to miss them. However we move on, as all seniors have and all seniors must. Im going to miss all my friends MM, JK, BS, AS, JJ, JR, CP, SA, LM, SD, JR and JB. Ive always hated having to get up early for high school, Ive always been jealous of seniors who got to escape. Now I kind of wish I could stay. So now that our senior year comes to an end and so closes another chapter in our lives, we say goodbye to this small little town on a map and move in to bigger and brighter places..

First, let me say thank you to my whole family for being there for me when times were tough thanks to both my Mom, Dad, Sam, Jake, Nana and everyone. There were good times, there were bad times. All started in 9th grade chilling with my boys Duke and Jordan. As the months passed by us we just wanted to graduate. The Wise men, we called ourselves because every time we heard that James Blunt song Wise Men it just sounded like us. There were 3 wise men that came down from heaven.....Then 10th and 11th grade were just so boring like the same old things everyday. Ha-ha yeah. Now I'm a SENIOR and it's the best time. Big ups to all my dudes. JOSE REST EASY BABY..

As a senior at West Bridgewater high school there are many things I know I could never forget. Such as my teachers who have taught me more than just the lessons in the classrooms. I will remember running through every type of condition good and bad with Mr. Sylvain at cross country, spending every day in the music room with Miss Beaver and Mr. Collins, and singing and dancing with Miss Lafferty in drama. There is never a dull moment through torrential down pours, conducting music, and bringing out the drama queen. I would like to thank my friends for everything though the good and bad. I will always remember endless laughter and shoulders to lean on. You have made the years in high school truly unforgettable.

What can I say, these past few years have been the best a guy can have. The friends I've made, and what we've done with our time is astounding. Friends made from sitting in a crazy PowerBlock, from playing tennis in gym class, by talking about HP during XC practice, by gouging eyes out One friend made through meeting her younger brother, who feels mine, that changed me like nothing else ever has. Hanging around the senior hallway my Junior year, and getting to see you every morning was a pleasure I've missed dearly since. You've changed me to a better man than I could have ever hoped to be. I can think of a few others that were a big part of that too. My sistas, Christopher-Cupcake-Hofmann, and Ranger Sue-Ellen Duffy. You guys are the best, and you made my last few years at this school something I'll always be grateful for. Driving around crammed in Ralph's Thanks.

High school is one of the most trying, complicated, and amazing experiences I have ever been through. At the end it feels like running a gauntlet. Suddenly it's possible to be faster, stronger, and smarter if you only have the will to try. It is very hard to realize that we are soon going to have the weight of the world on our shoulders. The future is ours and the possibilities are endless if we are only strong enough to fight for them. I would like to thank not only the gauntlet that is high school but also my family, teachers, friends, and everyone else who has been a part of my life. You mean the world to me and have made me a person I feel is strong enough to take on the world and change it for the better.

First, I want to thank my family and friends for always being there for me. Time flew hasn't it? I remember walking into the freshman hallway and putting away my books like it was only months ago. There have been some really good times during the past 4yrs that I'll never forget. Of course there were also some bad times, but I want to start the next chapter of my life with no regrets and I wish all of my classmates the best of luck. Kelly, I hope we stay super geeks until the day we die! And Kelli, soon we'll be able to pretend we're spies whenever we want! As much as I'd love to write a million initials here, i'm going to avoid that, because I know that I'll forget someone and feel really bad about it after. But I love you all!

A large group of students, approximately 30 in total, are posing for a group photo in front of a white school bus. The students are arranged in several rows, some standing and some kneeling or sitting in the front. They are dressed in casual attire, including hoodies, sweatshirts, and jeans. Several students are holding signs: one in the front left says "AMEE EAGLE", another in the front center says "PEANUT BUTTER", and a third in the back right says "PEANUT BUTTER". The bus has a large window and a door visible in the background. The overall atmosphere is cheerful and organized.

A group photo of the 2009-2010 Student Council members. There are 18 students in total, posed in three rows. The front row has five students sitting on chairs. The middle row has seven students standing. The back row has six students standing. They are in a classroom with a whiteboard and a blackboard visible in the background. The students are wearing a variety of casual clothing, including t-shirts, sweaters, and jeans. Some t-shirts have text like "vb", "American Express", and "AER".

Senior Class Will

I, Haley Forman, leave Mini Beans the chance to actually meet Big Beans, Shaun Hogan $10, Cory Cadigan an everlasting ticket to see every Broadway show there is and KStew a friendly snack.

I, Samantha Asker, leave the drama club 180 Diet Cokes and my love, Wilder a mango, and Sophie, Ollie & Max some good, healthy WBHS stress.

I, Julia DeMolles, leave Mr. Finley some new paintbrushes.

I, Matt Campbell, leave Finley an infinite supply of maroon latex paint.

I, Maryann Serrilla, leave the drama club another successful drama year full of fun and laughter.

I, Jessica Waters, leave Katie one more year and Mr. D a person to visit him everyday.

I, Allie Farnsworth, leave Mr. McMurray a brand new thermometer.

I, Megan Beyer, leave Orlando a broken crucible, Kelsey a grappling buddy, & Mini-me a Beyonce song.

I, Robert Hasa, leave my slot on the tennis team to Travis Caffelle.

I, Renee Boudrean, leave Mr. Collins two years worth of powerblocks all to himself.

I, Amanda Leitao, leave Tina a gum-run before school and a hallway shout-out, Ashley & Marissa an adventure around town and my mom the responsibility of picking up my bus route.

I, Shane Fencer, leave my brother the blue beast and my outstanding legacy.

I, Samantha Preston, leave Hanna Preston my spot in the high school, the girls soccer team a winning season and the 4x4 team another state qualifying race.

I, Julie Kane, leave Olivia an older sister and Jess Anderson without someone at track.

I, Steph Petronelli, leave Katie Maloney a bunch of squad lovin', Stephanie Taylor a hug in the hallway and Mr. D a quieter student.

The Class of 2009 bestows these gifts upon you.

Senior Class Will

I, Zach Morin, leave Olivia Morin one ride to school with her own music, Jackie Reagan and Lindsey McAlpine one older brother, and Cassandra Paiva ten twisty ties.

I, Jess Blanchard, leave Steph Taylor a comb to tame her hair.

I, Ryan Tartaglia, leave Eric 10 more years of misery, my fame and a dog, Eldeb a brand new car, Drass 2 years of WB baseball, and Dionne property of Harvestwood.

I, Danielle Correia, leave AF my shift at dunks, KH a running buddy, JH&KB a ride to lumber camp.

I, Dan McCarthy, leave best wishes to the underclassmen.

I, Jared Percival, leave this school to Jacob, Joe, Fernberg, Alex, Dionne, Mike, Cole, Krista and Colby.

I, Shaun Collins, leave my bro another 2 years with Jacob Dionne.

I, Ryan Webby, leave my West Bridgewater legacy to Jimmy White and my tri-sports to DJ Jamieson.

I, Mackenzie Shubert, leave Amanda Shea a running buddy, my lucky #3 jersey and Alex DeLorenzo & Kristin Hill a good playlist for bus rides, Linsky a quick gossip session, Carolyn a new group of 7th graders and Tayla a sleeping baby in the cage.

I, Ethan Hayward, leave everyone a good laugh.

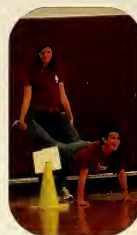

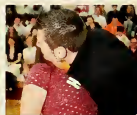

I, Jonathan Rodenbush, leave this school to my friends, Dionne & the funny kid, and Cole my royalty.

I, Katlyn Eldeb, leave Zach a new ride to school every day, Shaun a gym buddy and the junior class some fun.

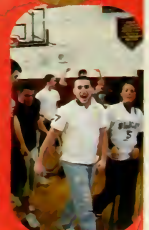

I, Nancy Kwan, leave my Marie Antoinette biography and movie to Sam Asker and Lauren Baker, and hope they will visit me in my future place of residence, the Palace of Versailles.

I, Matt Sylva, leave the upcoming Senior Class half of the spirit our class has, so you can be ALMOST as cool when your time comes.

The End of an Era

This year we bid farewell to two faculty members who have served West Bridgewater Middle-Senior High School for nearly sixty years combined.

Thank you,
Coach Barrett!

Mr. Stephen Barrett
33 years of service

We will miss you, Mr. Barrett and Mrs. Peckham! Thank you for all the Wildcat Spirit you have brought to this school!

The End of an Era

Mrs. Elaine Peckham
25 years of service

Twenty five years of

- Sociology
- Psychology
- CAI
- French
- History

Thank you, Mrs. Peckham!

James

The years have gone by so fast.
We are so proud of the man you have become.
You are and always will be special to us.
Love you, Mom and Dad

Zach, You made it! Just remember...
Always take chances, be true to yourself and have a blast along the way. Life is not a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely, but rather to skid in broadside totally worn out and yelling "wow what a ride"

We are very proud of you... From being our little girl and growing up to being quite a young lady.
How successful you have been with everything you have done.

Congratulations to the Class of 2009.

Love Always, Dad, Mom & Brendan

Always remember "My Wish" Rascal Flatts

"My Wish"

I hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow,

And each road leads you where you want to go,

And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,

I hope you choose the one that means the most to you.

And if one door opens to another door closed,

I hope you keep on walkin' till you find the window,

If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile,

But more than anything, more than anything,

My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,

Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,

You never need to carry more than you can hold,

And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,

I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,

Yeah, this, is my wish.

I hope you never look back, but ya never forget,

All the ones who love you, in the place you left,

I hope you always forgive, and you never regret,

And you help somebody every chance you get,

Oh, you find God's grace, in every mistake,

And you always give more than you take.

Congratulations, Amy

"You're a person of great heart and great character, and that combination will always win the day."

Dream as if you'll live forever:
live as if you'll die today.

JARED

*Our world became a better place the day you were born.
But the years have passed so quickly, your childhood
now is gone.*

As you enter young adulthood and begin your college days.

Always remember that we love you, just the way you are today.

So wherever your life takes you, whatever your future holds.

*Don't lose touch with who you've always been, a boy

We know you will be successful in everything you do, Because your smiling face and caring ways are such a part of you.

We are all so proud of you and love you so much today and always!

 Today is your day!
 Your mountain is waiting
 So...get on your way!

-Dr. Suess

Ryan, we are so proud of what you have achieved! Great times or tough times, you were a true champion. We know that the places you go will lead you to a remarkable life, full of friendship and love.

KEEP SMILING! WE LOVE YOU!
 Love, Mum, Dad, Andrew, and Eric

CONGRATULATIONS MATT!

Matthew

We admire and respect your kindness for others. We look forward to watching you grow and embrace life. We are very proud of all that you have accomplished. Whatever you choose to do, do it with passion and determination.

*All our love,
 Dad, Mom, Sean and Amber*

MACKENZIE

Mackenzie,

The feelings that I have are difficult to put into words and you will know when you are a mother, the love I feel is indescribable. It's like trying to describe the taste of milk (impossible) but I'll do my best. From the moment you entered this world you brought nothing but happiness into my life and for this I am blessed, you are one of many blessings. When I think of you I see smiles, determination, love, singing, dancing and a zest for life!

Your passion and determination, your leadership and your direction that you are heading in is so exciting! I know things have not always been rosy in our lives but difficult situations and hard times are a part of life. At a very young age you found the strength and spirit to overcome the difficulties and put them in perspective. Whether things had the outcome you wanted or not you overcame alot of obstacles and this became a strength for you. Your dreams, Your hopes and your opportunities are all in order and I have no doubts that you will seek, find and conquer all that you set out to do. I want you to know that for as long as I live you will always have my love and support, unconditionally. I gave you life to live, so go live it the way you want! Don't let anything or anyone get in the way of your goals and dreams. Continue to aim high and NEVER settle. Go my little girllie, my little pink blanket, my little tigger, it's time for you to spread your wings! We have no idea what is in store for us so take each day as a gift and live it to the fullest, go on and BELIEVE and never give up. I love you!!! You have done me proud!!!! Mom (deb) :)

Katelyn Renee',

Since the day you were born you have been our number one, and always will be.

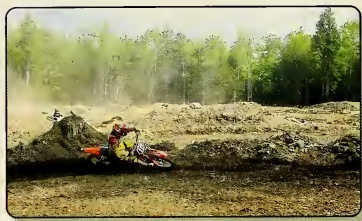

There is no one in this world we could love more than you, we are very proud and honored to be your parents. We know having your great-grandparents, grandparents and other relatives living with us, has proven to be both wonderful and heartbreking. We can only hope that they have touched your life the way you have touched all of ours. Please continue being the amazing beautiful person that you are, and always lead with your heart, it's a beautiful one.

All our love,

Mom & Dad

I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known.

Paul, you are a great son that has always brought great joy and happiness into our lives. May the Lord continue to pour his blessings upon what ever endeavor you choose.
